INTERNATIONAL AND NATIONAL REPUTATION

The following positions and opportunities were solicited by the designated agencies.

International Associations

North American Chinese Psychological Association (NACPA)

The NACPA provides Chinese psychological professionals with authentic, affordable, and high quality service through on-line webinars and supervision. NACPA members include psychological consultants, psychotherapists, guidance counselors in schools, psychiatrists, and related professionals. As the NACPA Designated Trainer, my role was to serve as the sole provider of training to NACPA members, which includes webinars and live supervision.

National Associations

American Association of Christian Counselors (AACC)

As a member of the Accreditation and Faith Committee, I was invited to participate on a committee of university administrators, faculty, and accreditation experts to formulate strategies for the integration of accreditation and faith-based education.

Association of Spiritual, Ethical, & Religious Values in Counseling (ASERVIC)

In addition to having served as the president of ASERVIC, I was an invited member for the Summit on Spirituality II, which consisted of identified experts in the fields of counseling and spirituality. This three-year summit was tasked with (a) reviewing and revising the original ASERVIC Spiritual Competencies; (b) creating a registry for, and designing a new credential (the Spiritually Sensitive Counselor), and; (c) creating modules for training students and professionals to competently integrate spirituality and counseling.

Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP)

In addition to having served on the CACREP Board of Directors and as a University Site Team Chair, I also serve as a CACREP Consultant. Department of Veterans Affairs, Vocational Rehabilitation & Employment Service

As an Ethical Consultant, I was invited to design training materials for Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment field staff via the Department of Veterans Affairs' online training resource.

National Association of Alcoholism & Drug Abuse Counselors (NAADAC)

As an invited member of the National Addictions Standards and Studies Collaborative Committee, I helped to establish the first ever national standardized curriculum for addiction professionals at the associate's, bachelor's, master's and doctorate levels.

National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC)

As an invited Webinar Presenter, I have provided numerous trainings to Nationally Certified Counselors on such topics as military culture, decreasing resistance to help-seeking among military personnel, moral injury, Acceptance and Commitment Therapy, and self-forgiveness.

Regional, State, and Local

Aspire Health Partners (formally Seminole Behavioral Health)

As an invited Trainer and Consultant for Seminole Behavioral Health, I developed and delivered trainings on such topics as Motivational Interviewing, co-occurring disorders, forgiveness, and pathways to recovery.

Orange County Government

As an invited member of the Heroin Task Force, I served on the Education & Prevention Subcommittee, which consisted of educators and law enforcement officers. The Task Force was charged by the Major of Orange County to devise strategies to address the heroin epidemic that plagued Orange County.

INTERNATIONAL AND NATIONAL REPUTATION continuedSpace Coast Mental Health Counselors Association (SPMHCA)

As an invited member of the SPMHCA Ethics Committee, my expertise has been sought to help resolve ethical complaints within the organization.

2015 Summer Faculty Development Conference

University of Central Florida

Aligning Institutional Effectiveness with National Accreditation

Counselor Education Program conference team aligned our university institutional effectiveness (IE) plans with our national accrediting body (CACREP). The team successfully 1) updated the mission statements for all program IE plans, 2) revised the IE plans' student learning outcomes (objectives) that reflect CACREP Accreditation Standards, and 3) developed additional IE plans outcome measures and instruments.

2013 Summer Faculty Development Conference

University of Central Florida

Assessment & Outcomes of Doctoral Program Evaluation

Counselor Education Program conference team developed a programmatic evaluation to ascertain the strengths and areas of growth for the various elements of the UCF Counselor Education doctoral program. Upon reviewing results, the team 1) created a new admission and interview process for future candidates and 2) developed a new assessment and feedback instrument known as the Counselor Educator-In-Training Assessment Scale (CETAS) ©

2012 Summer Faculty Development Conference

University of Central Florida

Curriculum Mapping and Assessment

Counselor Education Program conference team ensured that our program content was aligned with student learning outcomes (SLOs; as outlined in our Institutional Effectiveness Plan and the CACREP [2009] Accreditation Standards) by developing an assessment matrix that identified specific SLOs per course and accreditation standard. These SLOs were identified both in where there were addressed and where they were assessed throughout the curriculum.

2010 Summer Faculty Development Conference

University of Central Florida

Institutional Effectiveness (IE) and Accreditation Standard (e.g., CACREP, Standards) Alignment

Counselor Education Program conference team revised programmatic formative and summative assessment measures to align with CACREP (2009) Standards and UCF IE outcomes.

2009 Summer Faculty Development Conference

University of Central Florida

Programmatic Assessment of Student Learning Outcomes

Counselor Education Program conference team designed the Counselor Competency Scale to assess for student development in the areas of counseling skills, counseling dispositions, and professional behaviors.

2009 Winter Faculty Development Conference
