The College of Community Innovation and Education's (CCIE) School of Teacher Education (STE) at the University of Central Florida (UCF) expects current and future educators to possess and exhibit professional dispositions and behaviors deemed essential to success as a professional educator. Assessment of these professional dispositions is integrated into key formative and summative standards-based performance assessments in initial and advanced educator preparation programs in the unit.

Additionally, please note the following statement as it applies to all courses offered in the School of Teacher Education:

All readings, texts, and/or books in this course may not adhere to specific district policy for use in the classroom. Teacher candidates are advised to consult with the internship mentor and district prior to using materials from this course with children in traditional K-12 school settings or informal teaching settings.

Procedures

Code of Professional Conduct

If any faculty or staff member has a concern with a candidate’s professional dispositions and/or performance concern(s), the following guidelines will be used for counseling, documenting, and remediating concerns:

1. Candidates enrolled in education programs in the School of Teacher Education (STE) in the College of Community Innovation and Education are provided information concerning the UCF CCIE School of Teacher Education Code of Professional Conduct document and how the unit’s professional dispositions and/or performance are assessed in alignment with the Florida Educator Accomplished Practices. The information is located on the CCIE website, course syllabi, and the Student Teaching Handbook.

2. If any faculty or staff member has a concern with a candidate’s professional dispositions and/or performance, that faculty or staff member shall counsel with the candidate. If the concern persists, the faculty or staff member will conduct a formal counseling session with the candidate and document the concern(s) and develop a plan for improvement using the Professional Dispositions and/or Performance Concern(s) Remediation Form. Copies of the completed form will be provided to the candidate, the candidate’s advisor, the appropriate Faculty Administrator associated with School or Department, School Director or Department Chair, Offices of Undergraduate/Graduate Affairs, Director for Accreditation and Program Approval, and Associate Dean for Academic Affairs.

3. When a plan of action does not satisfactorily resolve the candidate’s professional dispositions and/or performance concern(s), the faculty or staff member will notify the appropriate School Director or Department Chair, who will convene a faculty committee (e.g., standing or ad hoc School or Departmental Candidate Issues Committee) meeting for the purpose of determining further steps which may include recommending, deferring, or denying the candidate’s further progression in the program.

4. If, for any reason, a candidate is asked, by administration or the cooperating/supervising teacher, to leave/not return to an internship placement, no plan of improvement will be developed, and the candidate will be automatically referred to meet with the faculty committee to determine further steps.

5. Candidates who are denied further progression by the faculty committee will be issued a letter of dismissal by the chair of the faculty committee and may pursue the appeal process at the following levels as defined in UCF-5.016 Student Academic Appeals:
   - Unit level – Director of School of Teacher Education
   - College level – CCIE Dean or designee
   - University level – Dean of the college of undergraduate studies or the dean of the graduate college
