

MASTER OF SCIENCE IN URBAN AND REGIONAL PLANNING (MSURP)

Program of Study

The Plan of Study (POS) serves as a roadmap for navigating the program. Please use your best faith estimates for the TERM/YR for the courses not yet taken. Your POS must be on file with your advisor at the end of your first semester.

NAME		TERM ADMITTED
PID (student ID) #		CATALOG YEAR
PROG DIRECTOR		TOTAL CR. HOURS

REQUIRED COURSES—27 CREDIT HOURS (All courses are 3 credit hours)

PREFIX	CATALOG #	COURSE TITLE	TERM/YR	GRADE
PAD	5336	Introduction to Urban Planning
PAD	5337	Urban Design and Land Development
PAD	5338	Land Use and Planning Law
PAD	6316	Planning Methods
PAD	6825	Cross—Sectoral Governance
PAD	5356	Managing Comm. and Economic Dev
PAD	6353	Environmental Planning and Policy
PAD	6847	Planning Healthy Communities
PAD	6387	Transportation Policy

IDS Capstone Project: The final product will be a design studio experience for six credit hours and covering two semesters. Students work in teams for the final project under supervision of a faculty advisor. Students work closely with various training Institutes and Community Partners. Part of the Capstone experience is presentation of the students' work at the annual Planning Conference.

IDS	6953	Capstone I
IDS	6954	Capstone II

RESTRICTED PLANNING ELECTIVES— SELECT 5 COURSES (15 CREDIT HOURS)

PAD	6254	Economic Land Use Planning and Dev
PAD	6397	Managing Emergencies and Crises
PAD	6339	Housing Development and Planning
PAD	6355	Growth Manag Approaches and Techniques
PAD	6716	Information Sys for Public Managers/Planners
URP	6711	Sustainable Transportation Planning
PAD	6946	Internship
PAD /NON	_____	_____
PAD /NON	_____	_____

It is my responsibility to keep informed of all rules, regulations and procedures required for graduate studies and also the requirements of my program.

STUDENT SIGNATURE: _____

DATE: _____