

Online Undergraduate Minor in CAREER AND TECHNICAL EDUCATION

For students who may become teachers or trainers in private and public secondary and postsecondary schools as well as adult technical/career centers. Students may also become corporate trainers, learning development managers, or CTE curriculum specialists.

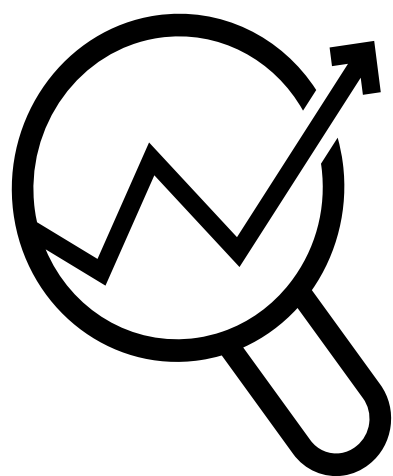

Program at a glance:

- 18 credit hours
- Offered 100% online to offer flexibility and convenience to working professionals
- Complete your degree in as little as 2 years
- Emphasis on the intellectual growth of each student using:
 - Research-based effective teaching techniques
 - Practical authentic assessment
 - Scholarly learning
 - Field experience
 - Leadership development

Industry Outlook:

- The median pay for Training and Development Specialists was $61,210 in 2019.
- The median pay for Career/Technical Education Teachers was $58,110 in 2019.
- The market for Training and Development Specialists is expected to grow 9% between 2018-2028.

Job titles include:

- CTE Teacher: secondary and postsecondary
- CTE Curriculum Specialist
- CTE Program Coordinator
- Corporate or Industry Training Manager
- Learning Development Trainer
- Career and Workforce Consultant

Big. Bold. Energetic.

We welcome you to join us to unleash your potential.

Contact:

Lisa Martino, Ph.D.
Lisa.Martino@ucf.edu
407-823-6184