

Conflict Resolution & Analysis

Are you pursuing a career that involves people?

If you said "yes!" then this certificate is for you. Getting a certificate in Conflict Resolution and Analysis will give you the tools required to understand what causes conflict and how to respond.

This certificate is especially important if you are considering a career in law, government, human resources, law enforcement, education, social work, corrections, and any other people-facing career.

Courses include:

- Community Mediation & Conflict Resolution
 - Conflict Resolution and Negotiation
 - Argumentation and Debate
- and more!

WHY A CERTIFICATE?

- Make yourself a more competitive candidate for grad school and jobs.
- Learn a skill that will not only benefit your professional life, but also your personal life.
- A great way to turn "random electives" into a focused certificate at UCF.