With the submission of this program of study, I understand that:

- It is my responsibility to keep informed of all rules, regulations, and procedures required for graduate studies. Graduate program regulations will not be waived, or exceptions granted because students plead no knowledge of the regulations or claim failure of the advisor to keep them informed.
- The UCF Graduate Catalog is the university's official record of graduate policies. In any case where this document and the Graduate Catalog appear to disagree, the Graduate Catalog is the final authority.
- It is my responsibility to keep informed of all policies and updates established by the program and listed in the program Student Handbook, which is housed on the PAF Webcourse.
