LESSON PLAN RESOURCES

CPALMS - CPALMS is a state wide infrastructure project to build information systems and tools to support the implementation of the Next Generation Sunshine State Standards (NGSSS) through the integration of course information systems, and standards-based resource information for teachers.

ACCESS Points - listing of standards based on subject area and then grade level

http://www.floridastandards.org/standards/accesspointsearch.aspx

Florida Center for Reading Research - FCRR share information on basic scientific research and research-based practices on reading and literacy for children ages pre-school through 12th grade.

http://www.fcrr.org

Council for Exceptional Children - CEC is an international professional organization dedicated to improving the educational success of individuals with disabilities and/or gifts and talents. The website provides information on governmental policies, professional standards, provided professional development, and provides professionals with resources necessary for effective professional practice.

http://www.cec.sped.org

Center for Applied Special Technology - CAST is a nonprofit research and development organization that works to expand learning opportunities for all individuals, especially those with disabilities, through Universal Design for Learning and is recognized for innovative contributions to educational products, classroom practices, and policies.

What Works Clearinghouse - U.S. Department of Education Institute of Education Services designed to share educational, scientific evidence-based teaching practices.

QR CODES

CPALMS

Access Points

FCRR

CEC

CAST

What Works
Clearinghouse